President's Piece

We lowered the hall flag for our Queens passing until commemoration day. It is an end of an era. A colleague commented to me there are three generations of males lined up for the throne so a shame not to have more good female role models. We'll need to do better more locally and add some more women to committee. Please put your hand up to join the fun.

More fabulous projects have been completed - hand rails on path to stream side (thanks Steve and Dave), and two large willows have been removed that were blocking the stream (thanks Willie). Stream erosion has been halted with left over concrete. And these were completed before the actual working bee day! The new pool cover has been installed.

Two Highlands sites have been cleared and an agreement reached between the site members on parking. A small sunny camper van site now is available for general use. A reminder please no parking by non-site members above the hall - there is not sufficient space.

Our first gift suitable for the summer raffles has been received. If you can't make a working bee how about putting your Airpoints or Hotpoints towards our fundraising.

A fabulous Italian dinner was hosted by June and Pieter. Some interesting shapes were created in the pasta making activity. Sarah & Murray ran another competitive quiz night.

Ngā mihi

Social Update

Approval has been given for the development of an entertainment area on the right hand side of the stage. The purpose is to have a full time mixer projector and speaker system set up permanently.

The stage is out of bounds while the area is under construction. Please do not place anything on the stage.

HEALTHY HABITS CORNER

This is our first article. If you have got a healthy tip let us know.

First up is the health of our stream. The stream represents the health of our environment and is a show piece of the club. Looking after what goes in is important. Did you know the fabulous tuna (eels) live up to 60years? They don't mate here so the smallest tuna are not with their parents.

The fully grown tuna travel to a mating frenzy near Vanuatu (an incredible feat) and the juveniles float back to NZ on the currents and spend years making their way up streams.

Anyway the healthy habit is to respect our stream, put nothing in it that will harm the stream life.

Caravan for Sale

Sleeps four (couch folds out to a double bed). Purchased with a new fridge/freezer and new plus sized double bed approx 5 years ago. Current electrical WOF. As-new microwave, double wardrobe, outside picnic table and plenty of storage. Has been leak-free/pest free for whole ownership+. Did a preventative/update re-sealing and re-painting + prime of exterior roof 1 year ago with top of line mould/algae and UV/cold weather resistant products.

Exterior is structurally fine and all ready for a new paint job. Will include all the paint products used so far for interior and exterior work. Have spent thousands and many hours on the interior updates but there are still a couple of spots and things to note that could do with some love from a new owner. Number of other items can be included in the sale like aux speakers and heater etc. Very sadly selling as I am not able to make it down from Auckland as much. Going 'as is' to the highest offer/open to discussion.

Call Lauren on 029 2013 837 to discuss.
